

Serviced Office Space UK

York YO26 6RB

This workspace is on the fringe of the City centre, on an up-and-coming business park. This centre is close to all amenities, including a crèche, restaurants, hotels and a health club. The city centre has beautiful places to explore, with various attractions like the Shambles, the striking Minster, and the National Railway Museum. The city's railway station is a busy station, located on the East Coast Mainline and with regular, direct services to London Kings Cross. There are also very frequent buses operating in the city.

This property is a brand-new modern office building, fully furnished with modern fittings and staffed by experienced personnel. The centre provides top-of-the-world serviced offices and world-class meeting rooms to the tenants. Services available at this centre include a kitchen, on-site reception and a management team. The centre is accessible 24 hours so the occupants can work flexibly. The centre also provides fully furnished offices, fixed cost, flexible term, fast move-in, 24-hour security, administrative support and a fantastic team of janitors, who help to keep the centre clean and hygienic.
