

Serviced Office Space UK

London SE18 6SW

Situated opposite the green space of Wellington Park and adjacent to the new developments in Royal Arsenal and the wide range of retail and leisure amenities created within it. With immediate proximity to the Elizabeth Line, occupiers and visitors have fast and comfortable access in air conditioned trains across the heart of London. The location also provides fast access to both City and Heathrow airports, direct overground trains to London Bridge, the Thames Clipper and the road network.

Situated in a beautiful period warehouse, the office space offers characterful serviced workspace for creatives and professionals alike. Recently reopened under new management, the building is currently undergoing significant refurbishment to enhance its offering to occupiers and visitors. Available workspaces range from co-working desks to large private rooms for the whole team. All suites are offered fully furnished and serviced and the building has a friendly staff of centre managers. Situated in the heart of the Royal Arsenal, the location offers a variety of retail and leisure amenities as well as fast transport links to the central London and the surrounding area.
