

Serviced Office Space UK

1 Bedford Street

London WC2E 9HG

The workspace is situated in Covent Garden, one of London's prominent historical and cultural districts. It is a bustling area that boasts some of the city's best landmarks and attractions, including Soho, Leicester Square, and Charing Cross. The location is conveniently connected by an efficient network of transport links such as Charing Cross station, which is just a minute's walk away from the property. Additionally, Leicester Square and Covent Garden stations are within easy reach, only four minutes from the workspace. In short, this location is ideal for businesses wishing to establish themselves in a highly dynamic and vibrant district in Central London.

This workspace is the epitome of what every forward-thinking business should have. With the inclusion of showers and bike storage, it is evident that the designers had the modern employee in mind. The corner aspect floor ensures that there's enough natural light to keep everyone energized throughout the day. The open plan design is not only attractive, but it also promotes collaboration among team members. Additionally, there are two meeting rooms, phone booths, a self-contained office, and breakout areas that are thoughtfully incorporated into the floor layout. Whether it's brainstorming or simply grabbing a quick coffee, this building has got it all. It is the perfect environment to bring a team together and achieve their objectives.
