Curie Avenue

Harwell OX11 0QG

Located on the world-renowned Harwell Oxford Campus in a vibrant and growing community of science and technology-based innovation and enterprise, including major national and international science projects and facilities. The centre has excellent transport links by road, rail and bus. The centre is the perfect place to base your business. Whether you are looking for a professional infrastructure to help your business grow or want larger premises to assist with your expansion, this centre can accommodate you and your business.

This business centre provides serviced offices to businesses of all sizes, from start-ups to national organisations. The centre is fully equipped with a 50Mb dedicated fibre-optic broadband connection, a professional on-site management team, meeting room availability, conference facilities and a tailored events programme. Members also benefit from a flexible licence agreement with as little as one month's exit notice. The office space can be accessed 24-hours a day, ideal for those who require more flexible working hours or to meet those last-minute deadlines. Parking is also available on-site.
