Yeovil BA20 2EN

This centre is set in historic and delightful surroundings on the outskirts of Yeovil in South Somerset. It is ideally situated 10 minutes from the A303 to Taunton and is easily accessible. Many amenities are close at hand including a superstore and retail park. Yeovil Pen Mill Railway Station offers direct services to London Waterloo as well as to Bristol Temple Meads, and there are various bus services across the town. Shopping options in Yeovil are good, with various outlets available in the Quedam Shopping Centre.

This centre is located in a fifteenth-century Grade I Listed manor house, so is one of the more beautiful office spaces anywhere. The property offers a full range of business support services including the latest in technology and conferencing facilities, an on-site café and ample free parking spaces, great for staff and visitors. Other excellent services include short-term flexible leases available on inclusive terms, Cat 5 Voice/Data Cabling, maintenance and 24-hour security and access to the centre. Administrative support is available, as well as shower facilities, for those running or cycling to the office.
