

Serviced Office Space UK

Auster Road

York YO30 4XA

This workspace occupies a central location within the city, granting direct access to public transportation via bus stops like Lysander Close and Sovereign House, as well as the York train station. Its prime setting ensures tenants have access to various nearby amenities, including a range of restaurants, pubs, and cafes, suitable for quick workday meals or client meetings. The workspace's location fosters a top-notch professional environment, making it the preferred choice for businesses aiming to establish themselves in the city centre.

The flexible offices in York offer local businesses a highly professional and productive workspace. Tenants benefit from the support of an on-site team responsible for office maintenance, deliveries, and assisting with business growth. Whether requiring long or short-term solutions, businesses are billed solely for the office space they utilize, which can expand to accommodate growing teams. Additional perks include access to contemporary kitchen facilities, storage options, and fast Wi-Fi. Notably, the space includes monthly credits that can be applied toward booking professional boardrooms for meetings.
