

Serviced Office Space UK

8 Freckleton Street

Preston (Lancashire) PR4 2SP

Together Workspace is located in the center of a local Market town called Kirkham. With a market square, iconic old churches, green parks and local Highstreet cafe's and businesses, Kirkham has a great local community. We are just off of market square next to local chippy, so is great to nip out and get some lunch on the highstreet. It is located in between the cities Preston and Blackpool and has great access to transport, being just off the motorway and having its own train station. It's the prefect place for families wanting to live more rural but close (20 mins) to cities and the coastline.

What used to be an old terraced house in the 18th century has gone through many refurbished. The latest converting what used to be an old Indian restaurant and 2 flats above into a new modern workspace. With access to the ground and first floor, an new open plan office space that has gone through thoughtful design to make it a productive and aesthetically appealing environment. Ground floor is open for relaxing work, with a meeting booth, phone booth for private calls, window seat for something different, and a communal kitchen area to be bale to step away from your work. The first floor again has open desk space with a standout box seat, a smaller kitchen nook for making your brews and an extra 5 man meeting room for hire. There is also a back outdoor area that can be taken advantage of when the sun is out.
