

Serviced Office Space UK

London SW8 3HE

The business centre is located just over the Chelsea Bridge, within walking distance to both Queenstown Road station and Battersea Park station. Local attractions are Battersea Park, Battersea Power Station and with local shops and cafés on Battersea Park Road, Clapham Common and Clapham Junction. This is an ideal location for your office space in SW London. An easy commute away from central London, this space allows you to enjoy all that the Capital has to offer, including some world-famous landmarks.

This is an expertly designed, serviced co-working space dedicated to individuals and small companies. It is made up of like-minded professionals from a diverse range of industries, who were tired of working from home or in stifling, dark, unimaginative offices. Now they enjoy their own dedicated desk in a great 'big office' atmosphere, impressing clients with the beautiful and stylish decor. It is fitted with top quality, reliable and practical facilities. This location provides everything you require from your workplace in up most comfort, including meeting rooms, parking, high-speed broadband and printing and copying facilities. This leaves you free to get on with running your business. Virtual offices are also available.
