29 Throgmorton Street

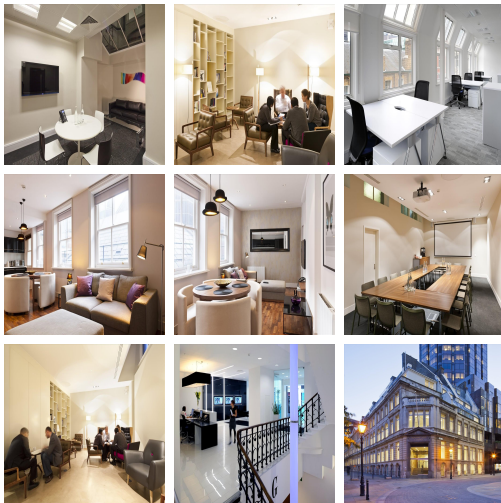

London EC2N 2AT

The most significant addresses in the square mile – such as the Bank of England, the Stock Exchange and the Lloyd’s building – are right on your doorstep, and, as you’d expect in the world’s leading financial centre, excellent bars and restaurants are in close proximity. Transport links are first-class with underground and mainline links easy to find and plentiful. London City Airport, great for international business travel, and Docklands itself is just a few stops away on the Dockland’s Light Railway.

Recently refurbished to the highest standard of specifications, this building offers you contemporary style in a traditional setting. There could scarcely be a better-placed location for businesses or organisations within the City. Positioned in the heart of the City, just a short walk from Bank, Moorgate and Liverpool Street stations if the former office of The Stock Exchange. Designed with the help of Scott Brownrigg Architects many original features have been retained whilst creating a contemporary modern environment. The building consists of private office space, a large co-working setting and meeting rooms as well as the added advantage of having a 2 bed apartment to rent out should you have visitors staying.
