

11 Somerset Place

Glasgow G3 7JT

The business centre is set within a uniquely convenient transport structure with excellent accessibility. It is a 5-minute walk from Charing Cross, less than half a mile from the M8 and has a main bus route directly on the door step. Parking is available on-site and local pay-and-display outside the front door, which is much cheaper than the city centre.

A beautifully refurbished Victorian townhouse situated in the park area of Glasgow. Each office is fully furnished and comes with broadband and telecoms as standard. A friendly, professional management team is available to meet your clients and answer the phones in your company name. This centre is an excellent home for any business looking to make a lasting impression to visitors, with impressive suites, reception area, coffee lounge and meeting rooms. Rental terms available from 3 months plus.
