Birmingham B12 OLD

Located in the heart of Birmingham's growing digital and creative sector in Digbeth. By being only a five minutes' walking distance from the Bull Ring Shopping Centre, this is a very sought-after location. Next to the famous Rainbow Pub and one of the oldest inns in Birmingham, the Old Crown Pub. The latter dates back to 1368. With extremely close proximity to National Express Coach Station, Birmingham New Street and Moor Street Station makes this an extremely practical and attractive location. In addition to the large Pay and Display car park on Heath Mill Lane, there is a good amount of free street parking in Digbeth.

This is a Victorian building which has been restored back to its former glory by the current owners. The building has been refurbished to a high standard with great access for people with disabilities. There is a manned reception area with 24-hour secure access for tenants. It has state-of-the-art telephone system with many advanced features such as voice to email, call forwarding, auto attendant and call recording. There is a dedicated broadband supply into the building will provide an extremely high-speed and efficient Internet connection. This centre offers a full serviced office model for tenants to operate their business in a superb environment.
