

Serviced Office Space UK

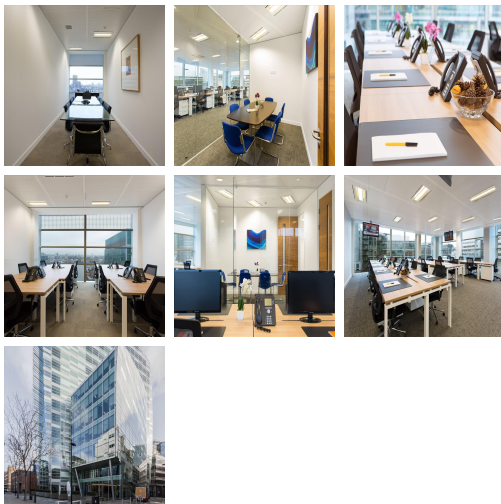

London EC2A 4EB

The nearest station to this property is Liverpool Street which offers various mainline rail services. The station also offers numerous bus routes and the Central, Hammersmith & City, Metropolitan and Circle lines and is five minutes' walk to Moorgate, Bank and St Paul's. A wide variety of sandwich shops, coffee houses and bars can be found within close proximity, great for a lunchtime or some time away from the office. Heathrow and London City airports can be easily reached for international business travel.

One of the finest buildings in the whole of the City boasting six passenger lifts, two of which are fully glazed and flank the building with stunning views. This spectacular building provides prime office space and a suitable business home for a firm of any size. The unbranded centre may also provide a state-of-the-art infrastructure with multiple primary and backup data access points, as well as telecoms and internet connections delivered by an on-site IT support team. The well managed property offers 24-hour access, meeting rooms, tea-points, reception lounges, showers and bike storage facilities.
