

Serviced Office Space UK

Nottingham NG1 7AQ

The office is only 60 seconds walk from Marks and Spencer's and is surrounded by professional businesses, including solicitors, accountants, and finance and marketing companies, to name just a few. Nottingham is a fantastic city with many attractions, perfect for time away from the office. There are several exciting bars and places to grab a drink, as well as stunning restaurants and quirky cafes. Hotels are located across the city, and the nearby railway Station provides travel across the country to many destinations.

This building is located in the heart of Nottingham's vibrant city centre. The huge Georgian windows let the light flood in, and the hand-stripped wooden floors will impress anyone who loves traditional interiors with a contemporary twist. The workspace also has a game room, kitchen and furnished restroom. The workspace also has a large lounge area equipped with a modern interior design. This building provides quality office space. The workspace includes meeting rooms, rest areas, offices and coffee breaks. This workspace offers quality, affordable office space with great views with plenty of natural lights. The workspace also provides a large parking area.
