

Serviced Office Space UK

50 Brown Street

Manchester M2 2JG

Manchester has developed the facilities and infrastructure to match its status as a centre for business and tourism. There are high-quality hotels to cater to every budget and restaurants that bring the world's cuisine to the table. Galleries, theatres and concert halls showcase the best of local and international culture. And when clients get a gap in their diary, they will be able to visit the renowned Victorian Town Hall, browse the reference shelves of the Central Library, study some fantastic Pre-Raphaelite art, attend an international conference at one of Europe's most striking venues, shop, dine and end the day with a performance by the Halle Orchestra at the Bridgewater Hall – all within a few minutes walk.

This property is a stunning grade A business centre in a prime location just off King Street, boasting superb views across the city. Offices on flexible terms to suit all sizes of business. The office suites are fully air-conditioned, featuring super-fast internet with MITEL 'walk about' telephones. The building is generously planned with a large reception including concierge services, a business lounge and kitchen areas. Tenants will benefit from access to the space 24 hours a day and a security system. Flexible and remote working is possible, as members here have access to centres across the country.
