

4th Floor

London SW1Y 4RG

The business centre is located just south of Piccadilly Circus in a sought-after commercial area that is occupied by the national and international headquarters of many companies. Numerous bus routes pass along Regent Street and there are several tube stations and two car parks just a short walk away, making the centre very well connected. Regent Street is a major retail district, while London is the world's leading financial centre alongside New York City and boasts a powerful and diverse economy.

A striking and prestigious business address at the heart of London's world-renowned West End is on offer at this Regent Street business centre. The impressive building was constructed in 1938 by the architect Robert Cromie, and was once home to the Paris Cinema and BBC radio studios, but now features a Grade A business centre on the fourth floor. It benefits from excellent natural light and a large roof terrace on the seventh floor. This centre offers all-inclusive pricing, so you can move in with peace of mind that there will be no unexpected costs each month, and can be accessed 24-hours a day.
