

Serviced Office Space UK

London W1W 8HF

Situated on Oxford Street, this business centre is an exclusive location offering ease of access to the best of London's iconic attractions and most famous shopping destination offering more than three hundred shops, designer outlets and landmark department stores, including the legendary Selfridges. Transport links are provided by London Underground Stations, Railway Stations and bus services. Get off the beaten track by slipping into a quiet side street laced with cafes and boutiques, or unwind in one of the nearby city square gardens.

Located in the heart of London's West End and constructed in 1906, the quintessentially Edwardian architecture makes a big impact and leaves a lasting impression. Its striking exterior and contemporary, designer interior, offers a unique yet comfortable working environment to suit the needs of your business as it develops. The building's unique history and stature, along with a tailored service concept, makes this building an energetic, inspiring and unique working environment. This is great for businesses that are looking to be part of an entrepreneurial community, with fully equipped meeting rooms, event space and onsite cafe providing a great social area to work and host guests.
