A short distance away are sites such as Saltaire which is worth a visit for food, drink, shopping and history.

The office space available is on Longlands Street, Bradford, just on the edge of the city centre, close to local shops. A car park is available (within the tenancy) just opposite the entrance. Available offices are situated on the first floor and have laminate wooden floor corridors and external light from windows in each office. There is a lift to the office floor, and the building is a stone, character building but internally in this space the offices are modern. The lease for the space includes utilities.
