146 The Strand

London WC2R 1JD

Situated right next to Somerset House and King College on London's world famous Strand, it is designed to be a modern and inviting office right in the middle of all things London. The property can be easily reached by both Temple and Embankment stations on the District line and is also near Covent Garden. Take in a show at the nearby Vaudeville Theatre, or enjoy a meal and drinks in one of the many bars and restaurants in the area, such as The Porterhouse, Mabel's Bar & Kitchen and Big Easy Bar BQ & Crabshack.

The office in Strand is being let per floor (each floor fits 10-14 desks) & is located in a fantastic area with endless viable transport options. With windows set on the high street you'll never feel like you're missing out on the London experience. Being in Strand you'll be able to register your office with a WC2 post code which marks a great first impression. The building has a newly serviced lift which will handle all your businesses ups and downs. It also comes with an intercom that will allow you to speak to the world outside, or just let a client through the door! You'll be connected to our internet which will guarantee smooth surfing. Each office comes with a 50" TV ready for your needs. Within the offices are two types of meeting rooms, the bookable meeting rooms and the break out rooms. The offices come with a communal fridge so you don't have to go to the shop every day, you can do it once and be set for the week. You'll be entitled to a range of complimentary teas and coffees.
