Faraday Road

Swindon SN3 5HQ

This splendid business centre boasts excellent connectivity via well-established transport links, and it's just a short drive from Swindon town centre. Swindon itself is renowned for its charming traditional pubs and shops, in addition to the typical high street stores like Marks and Spencer, House of Fraser, and Primark. The town also boasts a selection of modern and stylish cafes and bars that are major draws for visitors. Moreover, Swindon hosts both local and international markets regularly, offering a diverse shopping experience. For those with business in the capital, London is conveniently accessible within just an hour's journey from the well-placed Swindon train station.

This centre offers a range of suites, accommodating 1 to 5 individuals per room. Clients benefit from telephonic connections and 100Mb fibre broadband tailored to their specific needs, whether they are a tech company or require internet access for emails and web browsing. Additionally, the centre has implemented a firewall to ensure maximum security for clients and their companies. Features include quality furniture, A3/A4 printing facilities, as well as complimentary tea and coffee-making amenities. This centre holds the belief that a tenant should be treated like a valued hotel guest, ensuring they receive outstanding service. The commitment is to provide this level of care to each tenant, ensuring they make the most out of their office space.
