

Serviced Office Space UK

33 Hungerhill Road

Nottingham NG3 4NB

This business centre is at the heart of the community in St Ann's. It's home to a diverse range of businesses and organisations and is part of a Complex, which includes a Sports Hall. The centre is close to Woodborough Road (B684), one of the main routes to Nottingham City Centre from the north. A short distance away, the city centre offers a diverse range of places to eat, drink, shop, relax and stay. Restaurants include Red's True Barbecue and Turtle Bay, and there are various cool, quirky bars to enjoy a drink at.

The centre offers an professional on-site management team, with 24-hour access and secure intercom entry system and CCTV. The offices are modern, well-presented, and generously sized with meeting facilities. There is high performance, energy saving heating (wet system radiators) and category 2 office lighting (designed to reduce glare on computer screens). There are great networking opportunities within the centre, and ethical tenancies with your rent going to support charitable activities. Housed in a former Victorian school, the property is well suited to a number of different business types.
