

Serviced Office Space UK

Northampton NN1 5AW

Located close to Northampton town centre, this centre is within easy reach of a variety of amenities. The bus station, train station, motorway network and the airport are all easily accessible. The railway station has a regular commuter service to both Birmingham New Street and London Euston. In the town centre there are many places to enjoy a meal or a post work drink, and these include The Wig & Pen, ASK Italian and the Old Bank. There are also hotel options in the town and a number of shops in the Market Walk Shopping Centre.

Located in a Victorian building, this recently refurbished centre offers cost-effective packages and a comfortable office environment. Perfect for smaller, growing companies, these modern offices can accommodate a single desk or up to eight workstations. Administrative support is available on-site, as well as professional meeting rooms, a management team to assist with any enquiries, reception services with telephone answering and a security system. Parking spaces are a benefit to commuters and of course any visitors arriving on-site. In addition, the centre is accessible 24-hours a day, seven days a week.
