133 Whitechapel High Street

London E1 7QA

Located just minutes from both Aldgate and Aldgate East tube stations. This building is surrounded by amazing culture with Whitechapel Gallery just a few doors down, displaying incredible work from world-class artists (including the odd Picasso from time to time). Wilton's Music Hall not too far either, which 300 years ago was a Victorian sailor's pub, but has since has evolved through Methodist Mission to rag warehouse to derelict building to being reopened as... an incredible Music Hall. And of course it's close enough to Brick Lane market for that unbelievably delicious lunchtime salt beef bagel from Beigel Bagel.

Working with architects Morrow + Lorraine, this centre has created a fresh & clean design with a Miami theme. Think cocktails on the beach, bright colours and relaxed finishes. The impressive design of the property makes for a productive workplace. Home to plenty of office space ranging from small office space up to whole floors, this building also hosts a buzzing co-working café. This is a great workspace with WiFi that works and exceptional coffee, you can drop in for an hour, a day or every day if you wish, basically plug in and work. IT support is available, as are kitchen facilities and professional meeting rooms.
