Paddington

London W2 6LG

This centre is located right next to Paddington Station, meaning easy access to trains and the tube. The streets close by are host to pubs and shops, with some great places to eat and drink in the surrounding area. For a lunchtime stroll, it is a short walk to Hyde Park as you admire the architecture of the area. Heathrow Airport can be reached easily by road or by public transport, perfect for international travel requirements. Attractions and landmarks in the local area include the famous Lord's Cricket Ground, and Marble Arch.,

The unique design of the centre sets it apart from the rest, as do the amazing networking opportunities provided by the weekly events. Facilities such as printing, high speed internet and even micro-roasted coffee means everything that you need to run your business is all under one roof. With access to lounges and conference rooms, you can work how you want to get the best out of your business. There is bike storage, for those cycling to work, and there are kitchen areas for you to make use of. Private offices are available, as well as hot desks, so there is something to suit a range of requirements
