91 Wimpole Street

London W1G 0EF

The location of this centre offers a therapeutic retreat from the hustle and bustle of Oxford Street. With both Bond Street underground Station (perfect for Crossrail) and Oxford Circus just a few minutes away, you have easy access to the rest of the city and beyond. There's a feast of cafes, bars and restaurants in the tucked away streets of St Christopher's Place and Marylebone Lane, perfect for a lunchtime stroll. In under an hour you can reach Heathrow Airport, great for international travel requirements.

This is a grand, late Victorian building on the outside, blended with a stunning modern interior. The glass atrium floods the interior with light, revealing a fresh, modern take on 60's design and creating a very pleasant working environment. Classic yet cutting edge. There are five floors packed with everything you could want from a modern workspace, including lounges, co-working, professional meeting rooms, IT support and one of the best roof gardens in London, for an impressive breakout space. Bike racks are excellent for those cycling to the office, something that is very popular in London.
