41-43 Portland Road

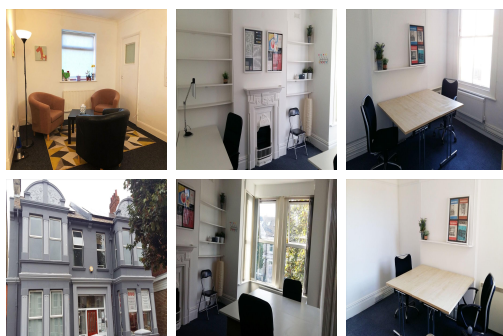

Hove BN3 5DQ

A fantastic place to work, located on Hove's busy Portland Road, this centre benefits from excellent transport links. There are several bus stops on the doorstep, and Hove railway station is just a 12-minute walk away, providing frequent services to Brighton, London and the West. Portland Road is home to many cafes, restaurants and food outlets, ensuring tenants won't need to travel far for lunch out of the office. In addition, there are various shops, bars and attractions nearby to explore after hours.

A fantastic place to work on Portland Road, this centre offers spacious offices at affordable prices. Join the current tenants of this building, who are all worthwhile businesses. There are some superb companies within the property, from charities tackling loneliness right through to art classes for children. The centre has created an environment where small businesses can support each other to do good for the community. The offices are non-branded and feature large windows with plenty of natural light. Tenants can access this property 24-hours a day, perfect for those who want the opportunity to work outside the regular nine-to-five.
