

Serviced Office Space UK

London WC1X 8LZ

The centre is located just 100 metres away from Chancery Lane in a prime central London location. Due to its excellent location, the centre benefits from a wealth of nearby transport locations. Chancery Lane underground station is just 4-minutes away, with Holborn (12-minute walk), Russell Square (17 minutes), and Barbican (17 minutes) stations' all in the close vicinity. Farringdon rail station – offering both underground and Thameslink travel – is 9-minutes walk away. Thus, both public transport users and those who drive to work (with the centre's parking facilities) will enjoy easy access to the centre. With such a great central location, the centre has some great London attractions within close proximity, such as the Charles Dickens Museum (7 minutes), the Sir John Soane's Museum (11 minutes) and St Paul's Cathedral (17 minutes).

Having been recently refurbished, this centre's six floors – with one office spanning each floor – are now modern, sleek and stylish. The centre benefits from 24 hour access, meaning those workers whose day doesn't fit the 9 till 5 frame can enjoy access at any time they need it. Additionally, with a dedicated on-site management team, any questions or teething issues you have whilst moving in or in the future will be able to be answered by a friendly, helpful staff member. Parking is also available for tenants, taking an element of stress out of your morning commute. With the opportunity to have a full floor of space, this centre offers a great prospect for businesses of any kind.
