

Serviced Office Space UK

51 - 53 Rivington Street

London EC2A 3QP

The office is a short walk from Old Street or Shoreditch High Street Station and slightly further away from the large Liverpool Street Station. The bustling area is filled with amazing pubs, bars, boutiques and restaurants, Spitalfields Market and Brick Lane are both close by and the space is situated right next door to the famous Bricklayers arms. Use the excellent transport links to explore London; take in some culture with a West End Show, see some famous landmarks, or take a stroll along the Thames.

Housed in a beautifully renovated Victorian building on the much sought after Rivington Street, the office is situated in a light flooded basement. There are five desks available, four as part of an open plan office and one glass contained office. You would be sharing with a Fashion PR office with a well know client roster of London Fashion Week designers as well as luxury and contemporary fashion / accessory brands. The spec and finish is high - perfect for any start up in the fashion sector. There is also a showroom on the ground floor that can be used as an impressive meeting space. Tenants can take advantage of High speed internet by independent provider, a beautiful meeting space on the ground floor in our showroom space, storage space, a fully equipped kitchen and dining area and two toilets.
