

Serviced Office Space UK

69-85 Tabernacle Street

London EC2A 4BD

This space has great access to public transport - with multiple stations such as Old Street, Liverpool Street Station and Moorgate all in within walking distance. The space is surrounded by fantastic options for lunch and dinner with a variety of choice anywhere from delicious street food through to high end dining experiences. The space is also within walking distance of Spitalfields Market a great place to explore and shop whenever the feeling takes you. There are a couple of dry cleaners close by for your convenience, a shoe menders and a fantastic variety of gyms for those of you that like to keep fit all close by.

This a fantastic opportunity for a growing business to move in to a relaxed and spacious office environment, working alongside a young, buzzy, communications agency and a few other like-minded businesses. You may rent either individual desks in the large open-plan area or an individual office: we currently have two private space options on offer which would accommodate either 8 or 16 desks. You will also be free to make use of the various break-out spaces including a fabulously long bench, and more formal meeting-room space may be booked by the hour. Our receptionist will be happy to meet and greet any visitors and you will have use of the large kitchen area and recently refurbished toilet facilities. Internet access is included within the price.
