

Serviced Office Space UK

111 Union Street

Glasgow G1 3TA

Situated in the heart of Glasgow city centre's commercial and retail district, adjacent to Central Station and just five minutes' walk from Queen Street Station, making for great rail connections regionally and nationally. The M74 is accessible immediately to the West and Glasgow International Airport is only 20 minutes away, making this business centre an ideal choice for commuting and business travel. Glasgow is full of landmarks, attractions, fine shopping centres and stunning places to eat and drink.

This property is a modern building providing cost-effective serviced office space solutions, suitable for a range of different business types. The space offers high-quality furnished accommodation, as well as the option of unfurnished accommodation to suit all requirements. This business centre provides small to medium-sized companies with a professional office solution with no major financial investment, and the 24-hour access and on-site amenities make this the perfect space. Meeting rooms, as well as IT support and internet access, are offered and the location helps provide the perfect work-life balance.
