London SE13 6EE

As a major transport hub, the London borough of Lewisham enjoys excellent links by rail, bus and Docklands Light Railway. So, it's an ideal location for any business that needs access to the City or the financial services sector at Canary Wharf. In this regenerating area, there's plenty of scope for growth. The nearest airport is London City, which is less than seven miles away. Lewisham is benefiting from regeneration, so now is a good time to locate your company among nearly 7,900 existing businesses in the borough. This centre is surrounded by a large array of local amenities including shops, restaurants and cafes, so you will be spoilt for choice on your lunch break. It is also only a short walk from some local parks, perfect for if you want to go for a walk on your lunch or need to get out of the office. This area has everything that a local business needs to get ahead.

This centre offers creative co-working spaces, private offices of varying sizes, and meeting rooms which are available in many different sizes and layouts to suit your needs and are bookable by the hour. The office space is open plan, and the building has large windows which flood the space with natural light, making for a productive working environment. You will have access to top-quality, reliable WiFi, admin support on hand to help you when you need it and a business lounge. You will have the support you need to be able to concentrate on running your business without any unnecessary worries. This space is perfect for SMEs, start-ups and remote workers, as well as national companies opening satellite offices and global businesses establishing a footprint in the local area.
