

Charles House

London W1J 5DU

The serviced offices and virtual offices available at this centre are not only first-class well-equipped facilities, but also perfectly positioned in an ideal location just moments from Berkeley Square.

This centre benefits from a quiet location in London's Mayfair, yet just a few moments from the bustling Berkeley Square and all that the area has to offer. The property was built from Bath stone in 1907 and features an impressive corner turret and beautiful period features throughout. First-class offices are now available to suit a range of requirements from 1 to 20 desks. This discreet, completely unbranded business centre is especially popular with hedge funds and boutique financial services firms. The building also benefits from two executive boardrooms, contemporary kitchens and shower rooms featuring complimentary toiletries and linen.
