

Serviced Office Space UK

London W1T 1UT

This fantastic office building is located close to Oxford Street, London's world famous shopping street. With such an excellent location in a prime area of London, there are a huge variety of local amenities within walking distance. These range from world class gyms to fantastic restaurants and bars. Soho Square is the gateway to Soho and the West End, London's historic centre for the arts, theatres and Soho's vibrant nightlife. The nearest tube station is Tottenham Court Road, located a three minute walk from the office space.

This excellent work centre is a great set of 2-4 small business offices, enabled with a super high speed internet leased line. The offices, located just off Oxford Street and Soho Square, are available on a flexible contract with a private landlord. Companies can benefit from 24/7 access, and full branding inside and outside the building. All offices come with a private kitchen and toilet, and have CAT5 cabling for the high speed internet. With such a fantastic location, the office space is situated in close proximity to great transport links and a wealth of cafes, shops, restaurants and bars.
