

Serviced Office Space UK

9 Greyfriars Road

Reading RG1 1NU

This business centre is located in Reading, a town in the Thames Valley buzzing with hi-tech world leaders. Reading's proximity to London also makes it equally popular with start-ups eager to take advantage of its outstanding rail, road and air connections. This centre is two minutes from the revamped railway station and in a great position, within reach of the M4 motorway and all the amenities of the town centre. There's no shortage of restaurants to take clients to or hotels for guests to stay in.

This business centre is in a building that has earned an outstanding BREEAM rating - the first in the south east. It boasts serviced offices, day offices, a business lounge, professional meeting rooms, virtual offices and hot desks. This centre is perfect for any business that aims to be environmentally friendly, while benefiting from an exceptional working environment. This centre's proximity to the University of Reading means that there is plenty of talent, should you need people to join your business. With 24-hour access and security, the space is very accessible and offers added peace of mind.
