

Serviced Office Space UK

385 Springfield Road

Belfast BT12 7DG

This business space is located just 10-minutes away from Belfast City Centre. The bus stop is right outside the Business Park and runs to and from the city centre regularly, and the space has good links to both M1 & M2. There are many local shops, garages and cafes within walking distance of the centre. There are many attractions and amenities in the City Centre, and Belfast is well served by airports, with both Belfast International and George Best Belfast City within easy reach.

This business centre is a new and modern building which opened in September 2016. The building offers a range of services for you including; hot-desking, membership, virtual office options, dedicated desk, dedicated office, conferencing and meeting room facilities. As well as all of this, there is access to a meeting room and has a staffed reception between 8.30-5 pm, the space is accessible 24-hours a day, and there is also an in house admin team along with a friendly IT support team. Those cycling to work can make use of the bike racks at the workspace and shower facilities that are on offer.
