

Serviced Office Space UK

Coventry CV1 2AQ

The centre is within walking distance of town and Coventry station, close to shops and food outlets. The station offers regular, fast services to Birmingham New Street and London Euston. Situated just off the A4114 it offers excellent access across all of the Midlands and is 12 miles from Birmingham International Airport. There are good shopping options in Coventry, as well as several restaurants and bars and hotels, which are plentiful, including little well-known places to stay. Fantastic transport links are available due to the central location of this space.

This modern business centre focuses on letting clients concentrate purely on their business. All the offices are fully furnished with windows and fully carpeted. There is also available a meeting room at no extra charge with online booking for a maximum of 6 hours in any week. All-inclusive in the price are excellent fibre internet, a reasonably sized car park, postal services, kitchen, recycling, cleaning, 24-hour access, heating, electricity, breakout areas, signage and furniture. Friendly and helpful service is provided with the ready-to-use offices with the option to adjust the space as requirements change.
