231 - 232 Strand

London WC2R 1DA

Located just a minute's walk from Temple Underground Station, the centre is premium and easily accessible by public transport. Surrounded by some of the most famous sights in London, such as the British Museum, Covent Garden and St James Park, the office is in a high calibre set. Many luxurious restaurants, bars and shops are all within a five-minute walk. In addition, the West End offers several different theatres and a great entertainment experience. London Gatwick and Heathrow Airport are within an hour's commute, offering the chance for businesses to expand and make logistics easier.

This workspace boasts over thirty brand-new offices, catering to teams of 3-28 individuals, making it suitable for solicitor's offices, tech design firms or consultant teams. The centre offers an array of state-of-the-art facilities, equipped with the latest technology and backed by a team of friendly and experienced professionals. On-site amenities encompass a cutting-edge gym, fitness centre, secure bike storage, and convenient shower facilities. Complimentary high-speed WiFi, capable of meeting any internet demand, is readily available. With the added security of CCTV surveillance and personalized answering services, these offices provide safety and accessibility. Flexible terms, including meeting room packages and short-term leases, are accommodated and are seamlessly integrated.
