

Serviced Office Space UK

London W1F 0TN

Situated in the heart of London and surrounded by world famous and historically significant venues, the options for co working could not be in a better venue for networking and business arrangements. Within a five minute walk, Piccadilly Circus and Oxford Circus are both easily accessible. London Heathrow and Gatwick are 40 minutes by the tube and Paddington, Euston and Kings Cross are close by which means getting to other parts of the UK is easily doable. Soho has many restaurants, bars and well renowned clubs. There is a venue suitable for every type of business and this co working system can help many companies develop and become well established.

This is a unique and excellent opportunity for start up businesses and free lancers. It offers the chance to run businesses and meetings from high quality, luxurious restaurants. Designed as an alternative to the co working or the virtual office market this method allows businesses to meet and greet within the comfort and congregation of a business environment but with the added benefits of good catering and scenic venues. Membership is extremely flexible, allowing one to cancel or postpone the fee with just two weeks notice. It allows access to world class venues, boasting multi million pound interior design. Unlimited tea and coffee is available as well as other drinks and food, as well as high-speed internet access.
