

Serviced Office Space UK

Sunderland Road

Gateshead NE8 3HU

Developed in the 1960s, Aidan House is part of the Tynegate Triangle, which comprises three purpose-built office buildings: Chad House, Aidan House and Bede House. Blessed with fantastic views across the region, close to Gateshead Quays and with Gateshead High Street a five-minute walk away, Newcastle city centre and the A1 in close proximity, Aidan Office Space Newcastle is the perfect workspace solution at great prices. Our workplace solutions have been very popular with the NHS and also some of the large retailers. Give us a call today to find out how we can help you too with a solution that fits within your budget.

This office space is in a high-rise office block, at the edge of Gateshead town centre, with its wide range of amenities and excellent transport links. The building features views from the higher floors of the surrounding area. The centre has recently been refurbished and offers spacious, modern rooms, allowing businesses to customise and define their office space. Friendly and helpful staff are there to help with administrative support and will aim to make running a business as stress-free as possible. This business centre is the leading workspace provider with multiple office solutions for every business.
