London NW1 0DU

This centre is situated at the heart of London's trendiest district – Camden. With such iconic surroundings, and great transport links too, this centre offers an outstanding location for potential tenants. Just a couple of minutes walk away from Camden High Street, the centre has a vast amount of top class eateries and drinking holes on its doorstep. On top of all this, the centre is within ten minutes walk of both Camden Town and Mornington Crescent underground stations – both on the Northern line – and is close to a number of major bus routes.

What was once a furniture depository has now been renovated into a high spec office, situated in a prime London location and offering a great destination for all kinds of businesses. Comprising of seven office buildings this office space boasts wooden floors throughout the complex, an abundance of natural light and lovely high ceilings, producing an atmosphere that will prove to be a pleasure to work in. The crown jewel of the centre is its jaw-dropping communal roof terrace, offering panoramic views of London's skyline – an outstanding place to take a break from the work day or to entertain business guests. In addition, the centre's on site café will offer you plenty of options to stay fuelled throughout the long working day. This centre calls itself home to a number of creative businesses, in industries ranging from tech to gaming to finance.
