

Serviced Office Space UK

Henley-on-Thames RG9 1HG

The property's convenient location is less than a mile from the main train station within Henley-on-Thames and many of the town centre's numerous riverside restaurants. Don't fancy walking? Head to the nearby Newtown Road Bus Station and hop on one of the many buses that will take you into town. If you are eager for a stroll, why not head to the River & Rowing museum, an historic museum that celebrates the history of the famous British sport. The town centre offers a number of attractions, including hotels such as Hotel du Vin & Bistro.

This building houses new Oxfordshire office space to elevate your workday and motivate your team; a perfect environment for discerning professionals. The building itself has a shimmering glass feature, giving it a distinct sci-fi feel in Newton's primary business estate. Situated over three floors of co-working space, there is a range of features to suit your needs, including private booths, exclusive break-out areas, meeting rooms and private offices beaming with natural light. Looking to take a break from the office? Head to the building's wonderful roof terrace to enjoy the glorious views on a sunny day.
