

Serviced Office Space UK

1 Brunel way

Slough SL1 1FQ

With its fast track routes to the heart of London, Slough is as well connected to the capital as many of the city's boroughs. The space itself is located less than a minute walk from the main Slough station, a perfect convenience for those taking public transport. Close to the location you'll find an abundance of local shops, cafes, bars and restaurants, with plenty of activity and entertainment hubs nearby for your out of office activities. This central location is ideal for a quick walk into the town centre where there are plenty of things for you to do. The town of Slough was voted one of the best places to work in the UK in recent years and is an up and coming location for aspiring businesses.

This building, directly facing the Elizabeth line station, has street level reception that creates an instant welcome space for workers and visitors alike. You can enjoy access to the stylish business lounge, where staff can spend a bit of time away from their desks to sit back and relax or hold an informal meeting away from the office. An on-site cafeteria and restaurant provides with you a wide range of food and drinks to keep you refreshed throughout the day. Reception services are managed by the on-site concierge service, there to make workers' and colleagues lives easier by assisting them with their everyday tasks.
