7 Blackhorse Lane

London E17 6DS

This impressive business centre is incredibly well connected to a wide range of public transport connections. Blackhorse Road station is just a minute walk away from the building, connecting to the underground on the Victoria line and the London Overground. You can get to London Kings Cross Station in 16 minutes on this tube line. There are bus stops almost on the doorstep making these offices conveniently accessible. For those who prefer to drive to work, there is an NCP car park around the corner.

Modern and stylish custom built coworking desks and private offices are available in this newly refurbished art deco building. Large panoramic windows are found all around providing plenty of natural light. It is home to new creative community which is an excellent environment for networking and collaborating. The offices boast access to specialist media and technology equipment, super-fast internet, free coffee, meeting rooms and 24/7 access. There are bike racks onsite as well as showers, perfect for those who enjoy cycling to work or an early morning workout. As well as break out spaces there are nap pods for tenants to use. Reception services are provided and there is an onsite management team there for your needs.
