Inverurie AB51 5TB

This centre has fantastic access to both the North and South, with the A96 road less than one-minute's drive away. The building is well-positioned with Dyce Airport is just a ten-minute drive and Aberdeen city centre is less than fifteen-miles away. The nearest bus stop is a five-minute walk and Inverurie railway station is an eight-minute drive. The highly rated Porterhouse Steakhouse and Coffee Bar is about a five-minute drive, offering an excellent selection of food you could enjoy on your lunch break or after hours.

This purpose-built centre offers fully serviced office space that has been finished to an excellent standard. The office available is 160 square feet with 2 work stations for just £425 per month, which is great value for money. The business centre is located in a pleasant rural location, around two-miles south of Inverurie. The friendly staff who man the reception are there for all of your clerical needs, including mail handling, telephone answering and administrative support. There are dedicated and well-equipped meeting rooms on-site that are available to hire. Tenants and visitors can benefit from the ample secure parking at the property.
