

Serviced Office Space UK

Epsom KT19 8AG

Situated directly on the High Street, this business centre is in the most ideal location. There is an NCP car park in the basement of the centre or a council car park directly opposite - both pay & display and permit. There are also bike racks in the outdoor squares of the centre. The square of the centre is surrounded by restaurants and kiosks, with bike racks and a walkway through to the Epsom mainline railway station - only 2 minutes away. The M25 is within a 15/20 minute drive offering the chance to easily navigate across the country. London Heathrow and Gatwick are also within an hour away, meaning it would suit international business networking.

A spacious centre that has recently been refurbished and boasts a modern interior, airy rooms and a well-lit working environment. The workspace offers you the chance to customise the space to how you like it and ensure that the furniture is placed in the right positions. The office is on a serviced contract meaning that all bills and utilities are included in a monthly price which can be negotiated upon. The centre is open 24 hours and is fully secured at all times. Well-trained and friendly staff are there to ensure that day-to-day work goes smoothly. Fast internet is provided via WIFI and meeting rooms are available as well. A car park is close by to the centre although parking will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Overall the centre is ideal for budding entrepreneurs, established companies or ambitious start-ups.
