

Serviced Office Space UK

26 The Quadrant

Richmond TW9 1DL

Located in the heart of Richmond, your employees and clients can access the building with ease. The building is a short walk from Richmond Train Station — South West Trains and District line services (20 minutes to Central London). The centre also offers excellent transport links into and out of London and access to the A316, M3 and A4 into Central London. Richmond is a suburban town in southwest London, 8.2 miles west-southwest of Charing Cross. The town is on a meander of the River Thames, with many parks and open spaces, including Richmond Park, and many protected conservation areas, which include much of Richmond Hill.

Providing high-quality yet cost-effective space in the Richmond area, this centre will prove an exciting proposition for all business types due to the space available, which ranges from four workstations up to 50. All offices come with air conditioning and benefit from lots of natural light. With the centre's fantastic onsite management team, tenants can focus solely on business as everything else will be taken care of. The centre also boasts a range of amenities, including state-of-the-art telecom solutions, professional meeting and conference room facilities that come equipped with AV equipment, state-of-the-art security systems and onsite parking.
