

Serviced Office Space UK

London W1S 4HQ

The centre is nestled in the heart of Mayfair on Albemarle Street, giving members the opportunity to boast an enviable business address. If members are using the centre's meeting room facilities, they will benefit from a range of amenities surrounding the centre and excellent transport links. Green Park underground station - served by the Piccadilly, Victoria and Jubilee lines - is just a three-minute walk from the centre. Alternatively, Piccadilly Circus station (Bakerloo and Piccadilly lines) is around an eight-minute walk. Tenants will also find a range of eateries, drinking holes and café's in the Mayfair area.

Providing virtual office options with lots of flexibility, this centre allows tenants to benefit from many facilities that a conventional office would offer but maintain a large degree of freedom with their schedule and location. Ideal for start-ups looking to expand their business with a cost effective solution, this centre allows members to take advantage of a prestigious business address, mail services as well as more specialised services such as financial consultation and payroll services. Members will also be able to use the centre's meeting room facilities to host any clients or team meetings in a professional environment.
