

Serviced Office Space UK

Charecroft Way

London W14 0EE

The centre is based in the heart of Shepherd's Bush, benefiting from great transport links and close proximity to a range of amenities. The world famous Westfield is just a seven-minute walk from the centre, allowing tenants to explore a wealth of dining options and retail outlets on their lunch hour or post-work. In terms of transport, the centre is just a three-minute walk from Shepherd's Bush underground and rail station, providing Central Line access, as well as Overground and Southern rail services.

This 1960's building offers a total of 71 impressive offices and studios spread across eight floors. The centre benefits from an abundance of natural light, high ceilings and a stunning modern finish. With the centre's staffed reception service, any clients will be greeted professionally. Similarly, the centre's meeting room facilities allow team meetings or clients to be hosted in an impressive setting. The centre also boasts an onsite café to keep you energised throughout the day. Tenants will work every day in award-winning space for digital connectivity, considered one of the most digitally secure and resilient in the UK.
