

Argent Court

Surbiton KT6 7LD

The workspace is strategically located away from the hustle and bustle of London but close enough to make the space easily accessible. This workspace is situated just off the A3 close to the Tolworth Tower Junction with the A240. The workspace is accessed via Hook Rise South which is adjacent to A3 – Southbound or through Cox Lane or Oakcroft Road. This workspace provides excellent access to London, M25 (Junction 10), Heathrow or Gatwick Airports, and the South East Tesco is located within walking distance of this workspace.

This workspace offers more than 7000 square meters of completely furnished and equipped offices and conference facilities, including break rooms, window offices, and so on, are available at the centre. The centre also features a parking lot that is free of charge. A manned Reception will greet the clients on arrival. Members have access to a breakout area, the perfect place to take a break during a busy working day. This space also includes access to a communal kitchen for the client's convenience. Members can also take advantage of 24/7 building access. The centre provides an eye-pleasing atmosphere where clients can work more flexibly.
