

Serviced Office Space UK

London SE1 5TF

Bermondsey Square area in South East London is a community of shops, offices and apartments. It's a venue for a world-famous Friday antique market, lunchtime street food traders, an independent cinema and a boutique hotel. But most of all, it's a lively community working together to create a great place to be. Located within walking distance of great rail and bus connections, the office space is very accessible for commuters. Borough and Bermondsey Underground Stations are both situated a 15 minute walk from the office space.

Available for the first time, a private impressive office space, with floor to ceiling glass windows overlooking the street in a prime area of SE1. Situated on the first floor of an owner occupied modern building, this office space has many fantastic features. Tenants can benefit from a carpeted raised floor, suspended ceiling, air conditioning units and furnished office space. The monthly rent includes rates and electricity, shared internet if required. It also includes the services of a manned reception area and use of shared kitchen facilities and toilets. The space is available immediately and inspection is invited.
