

Serviced Office Space UK

Maidenhead SL6 8BY

This business centre is located in the heart of Maidenhead and offers some great local amenities nearby, meaning you will find something to keep everyone entertained from many shops, restaurants, bars and even Maidenhead football club. The closest train station is Maidenhead station and is located 15 minutes walk away. This space is also within easy reach of major motorway links M4, M40 and M25 and London's Heathrow Airport can be reached by car in less than half an hour, for international travel.

Within this space there are lots of flexible options for your business over three floors. From collaborative hot desk, breakout and meeting areas with free flow coffee, quiet and noisy space, to permanent desks in our open-plan or private office areas. The space also has meeting rooms that can be hired by non-members, car parking (prioritised for office and fixed desk residents), bike racks and showers. Most importantly there is the chance to co-work alongside some other fantastic growing businesses, and it is strongly believed that it is joining this vibrant community that will make all the difference and gives you the support and introductions that will help your business to flourish and grow.
